Farmingville, NY - At the September 30 Town Board Meeting, Councilwoman Jane Bonner and the Brookhaven Town Board honored Kara Patrovic, a senior at Miller Place High School, for her work with the not-for-profit organization that she founded, Kara2Mijael. The organization helps the needy people of a village in Bolivia where she has been sponsoring a little boy, Mijael. Since Kara was 9 years old, she has provided toys, supplies, clothes, and most recently, the construction of five clean water wells to the people of the village.

"Kara is an extraordinary young lady who sets a great example for others to follow," said Councilwoman Bonner. "I commend her for the charitable work she does here at home and in Bolivia that helps to improve the quality of life for so many people."

In addition to her accomplishments with Kara2Mijael, Kara also excels in school as an academically strong student, athlete, and remains very involved in her school and community. For more information, visit www.kara2mijael.org.
